ADVISORY – TODAY – HARRISBURG – Shapiro Administration to Celebrate Two Decades of Fueling Growth in Pennsylvania’s $132.5 Billion Agriculture Industry through Centers for Excellence

Harrisburg, PA – Today at the Pennsylvania Farm Show, Deputy Agriculture Secretary Lisa Graybeal and leadership from the Pennsylvania Centers for Excellence will celebrate how the centers are feeding the nation’s growth by bringing together industry associations, higher education institutions, and the Commonwealth to help advance research, innovation, and business growth in Pennsylvania’s different plant and animal agriculture sectors.

Governor Josh Shapiro’s Administration launched The Center for Plant Excellence in 2025 and established the Organic Center of Excellence while signing legislation establishing a PA Preferred Organic™ brand to open new markets for Pennsylvania producers.
