

David W. Sunday, Jr.
Pennsylvania Attorney General

MEDIA ADVISORY**

ID Theft Awareness Week: AG Sunday Meeting with Older Pennsylvanians to Discuss the Past Year in Scams, How to Protect Themselves

WHO:

- Dave Sunday, Attorney General of Pennsylvania
- Teresa Osborne, AARP State Advocacy Director
- David Shallcross, Director of Senior Protection Unit Education, OAG

WHEN & WHERE:

1 P.M., Wednesday, January 28, 2026

Homeland Center

Dining Room

1901 N. 5th St. Harrisburg, PA 17102

(Use Muench Street entrance; attendees should expect to park on the street, as lot space is extremely limited.)

MEDIA RSVP:

Credentialed media must RSVP to press@attorneygeneral.gov. Media may arrive beginning at 12:45 P.M.

WHAT:

Attorney General Dave Sunday joins AARP in marking Identity Theft Awareness Week with a presentation to older Pennsylvanians who are often targeted in scams.

Attorney General Sunday will provide information about the 2025 year in scams, including most common scam types, how many scams were reported, and how much money was lost.

Attorney General Sunday, AARP, and Director Shallcross will advise the audience on how they can defend themselves from identity thieves.