

ID Theft Awareness Week: AG Sunday Meeting with Older Pennsylvanians to Discuss the Past Year in Scams, How to Protect Themselves

Attorney General Dave Sunday joined AARP in marking Identity Theft Awareness Week with a presentation to older Pennsylvanians who are often targeted in scams. Attorney General Sunday provided information about the 2025 year in scams, including most common scam types, how many scams were reported, and how much money was lost. Attorney General Sunday, AARP, and Director Shallcross advised the audience on how they can defend themselves from identity thieves.
