MEDIA ADVISORY: TOMORROW IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY – PennDOT Secretary Carroll to Celebrate Driver and Vehicle Customer Service Enhancements

Carlisle, PA – Tomorrow, Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) Secretary Mike Carroll will recognize PennDOT's work to improve the customer experience at its driver license centers statewide at the Carlisle Driver License Center. The Carlisle center was renovated last year, which expanded the facility's size and customer seating area, along with the installation of additional service counters and other improvements.

These improvements align with the Shapiro Administration's commitment to providing Pennsylvanians with efficient, reliable, and friendly customer service.

WHO: PennDOT Secretary Mike Carroll

WHEN: TOMORROW, Thursday, February 5, at 10:00 AM

WHERE: Carlisle Driver License Center, Stonehedge Square, 950 Walnut Bottom Road, Suite 13, Carlisle.

RSVP: Media interested in attending should RSVP with the name of reporter/photographer to ltrindel@pa.gov.
