MEDIA ADVISORY: TODAY IN PITTSBURGH – Lt. Gov. Austin Davis to Highlight Shapiro-Davis Budget’s Investments in Career and Technical Education

PITTSBURGH, PA – Lt. Gov. Austin Davis will highlight how the Shapiro-Davis Administration is boosting investments in career and technical education (CTE) TODAY, Monday, April 6, at 1 p.m. at the Pittsburgh Westinghouse Academy, 1101 N. Murtland St., Pittsburgh.

Davis will join leaders from the American Federation of Teachers Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh Public Schools for a tour of the school and then hold a media availability after the tour.

Over the past three years, the Shapiro-Davis Administration has increased funding for CTE, vo-tech education and apprenticeships by nearly 50 percent — raising total spending from $118 million to $183 million. Those investments have already shown results. Since taking office, the Shapiro-Davis Administration has registered 237 new apprenticeship and pre-apprenticeship programs and enrolled 18,530 new apprentices. In addition, 3,000 more students have enrolled in vo-tech and CTE classes as a result of these investments.
